

WESTON COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
BRYAN COLVARD, SHERIFF

DEPUTY SHERIFF - The Weston County Sheriff's Office is accepting applications for the Position of Deputy Sheriff. Applicants must live in the Weston County area. The position has a great benefit package including medical, dental, vacation and sick leave. Starting wage will be DOE/POST (Peace Officer Standards and Training) Certification. POST Certification is required within one year from date of appointment by the Sheriff.

Applicant must have a valid Driver's License, High School Diploma or a GED equivalent and successfully pass a physical, psychological and drug test as well as an investigative background check and other requirements established by Wyoming POST.

Applications are available online at westongov.com at the bottom of the Sheriff's page or may be picked up at the Weston County Sheriff's Office, 25 N. Sumner Avenue, Newcastle, WY.